Make the Call, Save Lives.

You might be looking at human trafficking if you see ...

- Passengers who are not allowed to speak for themselves
- Passengers whose tickets or identification documents are being controlled by another person
- Passengers who have never met the person who is either picking them up or purchased their ticket
- Minors traveling without adult supervision
- Any acknowledgement that she/he has a pimp and is making a quota
- School bus drivers: Look for changes in students' patterns, moods, physical appearance or behavior

Call the National Human Trafficking
Hotline at 1-888-3737-888 (US) or 1-833-900-1010 (Canada)
